AREAS OF PRACTICE

International Commercial Arbitration
Investment Arbitration

Julie N. Bloch focuses her practice primarily on international investment treaty and commercial arbitration matters, serving both as assistant to the arbitral tribunal and counsel. She works under various institutions and rules, including the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the Dubai International Arbitration Centre (DIAC), the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce (SCC), the Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA), the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL), and the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS).

Before joining B. Cremades y Asociados, Julie focused on international human rights and public international law. She has experience in wrongful capital convictions and the post-conviction appeal process of foreign capital defendants.

Julie holds a J.D. from Cornell Law School with a specialization in International Legal Affairs and a concentration in Public Law. She also has an LL.M. in International Legal Studies from New York University School of Law and a Graduate Certificate in Business, International Relations and the Political Economy from The London School of Economics and Political Science.

While pursuing her J.D., Julie was a Notes Editor for the Cornell International Law Journal and a student advocate in the Cornell International Human Rights Clinic. She also clerked for the Magistrat de Liaison at the French Embassy in Washington, D.C., and worked with the Freedom of Information and Expression practice group of Open Society Justice Initiative.

While completing her LL.M., Julie was a Transitional Justice Scholar, a Graduate Editor for the New York University Journal of International Law and Politics, a student advocate in the Global Justice Clinic, and a member of NYU's Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court team.
